SCHÖNE-WEIDER STRASSE NO. 17

12055 NEUKÖLLN RIXDORF

WELCOME I 02

The past and the present seem to blend smoothly in Rixdorf. Founded around 1200, the followers of the Bohemian reformer Jan Hus fled here 300 years ago, which gave part of the municipality the epithet Bohemian Rixdorf. In 1912, the city was then renamed Neukölln as part of a campaign to improve its image.

Despite its colorful history and constant transformation, the Rixdorf district has retained its original character. Houses with history form the backdrop for today's hip avantgarde, which are drawn here from all over the world.

Under the clean surface, Rixdorf pulses: it acts like a magnet for free spirits and creative personalities who come here to realize their own ideas of live and let live and have chosen this part of the city as their chosen home. Here, tradition meets the colorful neighborhood character – contrasts that create an interesting and exciting environment.

In Rixdorf you can choose whether you want to live in the middle of all this commotion or maybe a bit more withdrawn. Schöneweider Straße 17 lies near the Karl-Marx-Straße artery, which runs through Neukölln. Despite the central location, the street has retained its calm atmosphere.

MILIEU PROTECTION AREA

Clear forms with select old building details: this is how you could describe the residential buildings of Schöneweider Strafe 17 in the neighborhood preservation area Rixdorf. Consisting of front building and garden house separated by an inner courtyard, they were erected in 1910.

The plain facade in blue-gray pastel shades and geometrically designed moldings of the facades only betray its age upon closer observation. But the decorated entrance and apartment doors, the segmented windows, and the turned banisters in the interior of the buildings reflect the charm of times past in the cared for residential buildings.

Colors that catch the eye are the mint and moss green details and doors of the stair wells, which complement the lime green floor coverings on the different floors in rich colors.

A total of 22 residential units with one to three rooms are housed in the buildings from the ground floor to the 5th floor. The two residential units on the ground floor of the garden house come with a smaller garden for use. The penthouse in the front building has already been remodeled and offers two residential units with terrace. The penthouse in the garden house has not yet been remodeled. Two more apartments with elevator could be built here.*

22 RESIDENTAL UNITS

^{*} Subject to public-law permits and the actual implementation of the person authorized to extend the building.

On every floor, two apartments branch off from the stair well. A driveway to the inner courtyard separates the two residential units on the ground floor of the front and garden house. All apartments have clear layouts and large windows that let lots of light stream into the living spaces. The generously designed living rooms offer plenty of space. Compact bathrooms and kitchens supplement the well-thought-out floor plan of the apartments. In all units, the rooms branch off directly from the hallway. From the first to the fourth floor each apartment will have a balcony*. The two ground floor units in the garden house come with a small garden.

The two penthouse apartments of the front building are something special. With 58 m^2 to 68 m^2 and only one or two rooms, they offer a special and generous floor plan. They are complemented by a south-facing terrace with a view of the neighborhood of Neukölln.

The apartments are being sold as is.

With an address at Schöneweider Strafe 17 in Berlin-Neukölln you do not need a car for everyday life. Childcare centers and schools are only a few minutes' walk away. A variety of supermarkets and stores for everyday needs are just around the corner.

The selection of restaurants, bars, and cafes is just as varied and typical for the cosmopolitan, international scene of Neukölln. Whether African, Italian, Arab cuisine or an Australian breakfast: here you will experience and enjoy future trends as they first come to Berlin and then to the rest of Germany. Rixdorf, the "eternal village", has developed into a culinary secret tip. In the pleasant atmosphere, a trendy restaurant scene is blossoming that attract residents from all over Berlin.

If you are more interested in the historical Neukölln, you can find Wilhelminian architecture around the Richardplatz, visit the almost 400-year-old Rixdorfer Schmiede, which still forges metal goods to this day, and then finish the day with a trip to a restaurant in the Villa Rixdorf erected in the 19th century.

RICHARDPLATZ
KÖRNER PARK
KARL-MARX-STRASSE
HERTZBERGPLATZ

There is plenty of space to go jogging, cycling, or for a walk in the nearby Körnerpark or also the Hertzbergplatz with its mini-golf course. The public Comenius-Garden provides lots of greenery and nature in connection with philosophy and science. Here you can follow the Lebensweg eines Menschen (journey of life) designed as a green circular path. In addition to flower beds, meadows, and a promenade, there is also a pond.

In terms of transportation, Schöneweider Strafe 17 is ideally located: The object is just about 450 m from the S-Bahn station Neukölln and just a few meters further from the subway station Karl-Marx-Strafe. By car, it takes about 5 minutes to get to the A100 highway via the Karl-Marx-Strafe.

INVESTMENT | 20

The outstanding location and their well-cared-for state can make the apartments in Schöneweider Straße 17 into a great investment - no matter whether you would like to live in this preferred neighborhood or whether it is a capital investment.

The Neukölln district has developed into a popular residential area in the past few years and attract more and more new Berliners, both national and international. Neukölln has always been a lively and social place in which artists, fashionistas, restaurateurs, and creative spirits have settled. With the influx, the global community has expanded and created a place that combines the old and the new Berlin like no other district. Here you can not only find the typical dynamic life but also the relaxed nature that (both) signify Berlin. Berlin, and in particular popular districts like Kreuzberg or Neukölln, continue to attract people from all over the world. This is good news for real estate owners, because owning an apartment in this location can be well worth it and be a stable investment in the future.
